IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. SCHIFF introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To enshrine the legacy of Jamal Khashoggi by protecting activists and journalists, codifying the Khashoggi Ban, and introducing the Khashoggi Amendment to the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Jamal Khashoggi Pro-
5 tection of Activists and Press Freedom Act of 2023”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) A free and independent press is necessary
4 for citizens to make informed choices on issues of 5 public concern, to have the information necessary to 6 recognize truth from falsehood, and to hold the pow-
7 erful and Government officials to account.

8 (2) As reflected in the First Amendment to the 9 United States Constitution, a free press is essential
10 to safeguard democracy.

11 (3) The suppression of the press is historically
12 associated with authoritarian rule.

13 (4) As provided in article 19 of the United Na-
14 tions Universal Declaration of Human Rights and 15 the International Covenant on Civil and Political 16 Rights, all people enjoy the right to freedom of opin-
17 ion and expression, which includes the right to seek,
18 receive, and impart information.

19 (5) An informed public is fundamental to a free
20 society.

21 (6) In accordance with a long United States
22 history of championing freedom of the press around
23 the globe, the Daniel Pearl Freedom of the Press
24 Act of 2009 was enacted into law (Public Law 111-25 166).

1 (7) Since the passage of the Daniel Pearl Free-
2 dom of the Press Act of 2009, the global environ-
3 ment for a free and independent press has become 4 more repressive.

5 (8) According to data from the Committee to 6 Protect Journalists, at least 363 journalists were im-
7 prisoned globally in relation to their work as of De-
8 cember 1, 2022, a new global high that overtakes
9 the prior year's record by 20 percent and marks an-10 other grim milestone in a deteriorating media land-
11 scapes. The Committee to Protect Journalists also 12 reported there was complete impunity in nearly 80
13 percent of the 263 cases of journalists murdered
14 globally between September 1, 2012, to August 31,
15 2022.

16 (9) According to Freedom House's publication
17 "Freedom in the World 2023", global freedom has 18 declined for 17 consecutive years, and over the past
19 year, media freedom came under pressure in at least 20 157 countries and territories assessed in the report.
21 Freedom House data also show that freedom of ex-
22 pression, for the media and individuals, has declined
23 more than any other civil liberty over the last 17
24 years, and infringement on free expression is one of

1 the biggest drivers of democratic backsliding glob-
2 ally.

3 (10) According to data from Reporters Without 4 Borders, 55 journalists were killed in 2022, an al-
5 most 15 percent increase over the prior year, and 6 since 2020, more journalists have been deliberately 7 targeted and killed in countries considered “at 8 peace” than in conflict zones.

9 (11) In 2018, the brutal murder of Jamal
10 Khashoggi at the hands of Saudi intelligence officers
11 acting on explicit orders of the Saudi Government 12 underscored the extent to which those in power will 13 go to stifle the freedom of expression, silence their 14 critics, and eliminate the threat they believe inde-
15 pendent journalists pose to their rule. The Office of 16 the Director of National Intelligence released a par-
17 tial, declassified intelligence report on February 26, 18 2021, which concluded that Khashoggi’s murder was 19 approved by Saudi Crown Prince Mohamed bin
20 Salman. However, impunity continues for the Saudi 21 officials involved in this crime.

22 (12) In March 2022, a Turkish judge, likely at 23 the behest of President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, 24 issued a ruling that closed the criminal trial of the 25 perpetrators in Türkiye (Turkey) and transferred it

1 to Saudi Arabia, where the case against the per-2 petrators was promptly dismissed, foreclosing the 3 prospect that they will ever be held accountable.

4 (13) In an effort to combat attacks against 5 journalists and others exercising their right to free-
6 dom of expression, Secretary of State Antony J.
7 Blinken in February 2021 announced the Khashoggi
8 Ban, a new policy allowing the Department of State
9 to impose visa restrictions on individuals who, acting 10 on behalf of a foreign government, are believed to 11 have been directly engaged in serious,
12 extraterritorial counter-dissident activities, including 13 activities that suppress, harass, surveil, threaten, or 14 harm journalists, activists, or other persons per-15 ceived to be dissidents for their work.

16 SEC. 3. KHASHOGGI BAN GROUND OF INADMISSIBILITY.

17 Section 212(a)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality
18 Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(3)) is amended by adding at the

3 Homeland Security, in consultation with 4 the Secretary of State, may waive the re-

12 signed at Lake Success June 26,
13 1947, and entered into force Novem-
14 ber 21, 1947 (TIAS 1676), or any
15 other applicable international obliga-
16 tion of the United States; or

17 “(II) is in the national interest of 18 the United States.

19 Such waiver shall be made in writing to 20 Congress and shall include a brief descrip-
21 tion of the how such waiver relates to a
22 reason described in subclause (I) or (II).

23 “(vi) DEFINITION.—In this subpara-
24 graph, the term ‘counter-dissident activi-
25 ties’ means actions taken by a foreign gov-

1 ernment or an individual who operates sub-
2 ject to the direction or control of a foreign 3 government or official, to silence, suppress,
4 harass, surveil, threaten, or harm journal-
5 ists, activists, or other persons perceived to 6 be dissidents by the foreign government,
7 which may include extrajudicial executions,
8 physical attacks, digital stalking, abduc-
